The bungalow is an oblong shape measuring about 65 by 48 feet. Rather out of repair.

There are three stone wells with steps on 3 sides. One of them is useful for "Kapile" and the others for Piccotahs. There is also a round stone-built well with a good supply of water.

The grazing is said to bring in an income of about Rs. 100 a year.

Terms of sale.

1. The above specified estate will be put up for sale before the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, on 23rd of September 1889 with an upset price to be named on the spot at the time of auction.

2. If necessary, the whole extent may be marked off into convenient building sites for the extension of the Mavalli and Upparhalli Villages and sold by separate lots, as may seem most convenient and advisable to the Deputy Commissioner.

3. The highest bidder will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money within seven days from the date of sale, failing which the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. No reasons will be assigned for the rejection of any bid; and no bid will be considered binding until final confirmation of the sale.

6. The above is subject to faults of description, &c.; and intending purchasers are warned to see and satisfy themselves as to the worth of the property beforehand.

7. Certificates of sale will, if necessary, be duly granted by the Deputy Commissioner, on the purchaser undertaking to pay the expenses.
